

ORPHEUS THEATRE

Fall 2019 Semester
Disney's Frozen Jr.

WHO/WHAT ARE THE STARSTRUCK PLAYERS?

Starstruck is Orpheus Theatre's youth theatre troupe, which is a tuition-based instructional performance/production opportunity for children and teens aged 6-18.

This year's fall semester will result in a fully-staged production of the musical Frozen Jr., performed in January 2020.

ARE THERE AUDITIONS, WILL MY CHILD GET A PART?

Each participant enrolled in the performance track of the Starstruck Players will appear in the show. While there are auditions for who gets what parts, everybody will have a role in the show to play.

WHAT IF MY CHILD DOESN'T WANT TO APPEAR ON STAGE?

New this year, Orpheus is adding a production track to the Starstruck Players.

This is an opportunity for the child/teen who loves theatre, but is more interested in the behind-the-scenes stuff such as props, set design/construction, costuming, stage crew, lighting, etc. There will even be a stage management track open to the child/teen interested in learning to become a Stage Manager (limited to 3 students). Each participant enrolled in the production or Stage Manager track will work backstage at the performances of the show in January.

WHAT IS THE TIME COMMITMENT?

The Starstruck Players meet on Sundays. Those registered for the performance track will meet for 16 Sunday rehearsals from 2pm-6pm, with the Fall semester scheduled to begin on September 15, 2019. Those registered for the production track will meet for 6 Sunday production meetings from 12:30-2:30pm starting September 29, 2019. If enrolled in the Stage Management track, your child/teen will attend all production meetings and all rehearsals (6 plus 16).

Each child/teen enrolled in the Starstruck Players will also participate in a production week (the week leading up to the show), Monday - Thursday from 5:30-8:30pm; as well as attend all performances: Friday night, Saturday night, and Sunday afternoon.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

Performance/Stage Management Track Tuition: $175/semester

Production Track Tuition: $100/semester

discounts available for multiple family members
